

The koehlerminder manifest

#1

We will tell stories. Explore. Universe. North pole. Rindenmulch.*

* We will communicate through our bodies (not perfect), our minds (unfocused), our hearts (anarchists) and souls (yeah... unstable). This makes us social human animals.

Communication is a way to build bridges to the things we do not know. It fills the gap between ME and YOU.

#2

We will be presents.*

* Presentation of a present shall be as important as the present itself. (Though if you wrap up shit very nicely it still stays shit.)

We offer our ideas, feelings and thoughts. A river doesn't hold back its waters. We don't save for bad times. Don't you fucking crisis us.

#3

We will float like a swarm.*

*Therefore we will fall in love with the work of other artists, with people on the street, with the books we read, the things we see and the sounds we hear. We will reshape unendlessly.

#4

We will matter.*

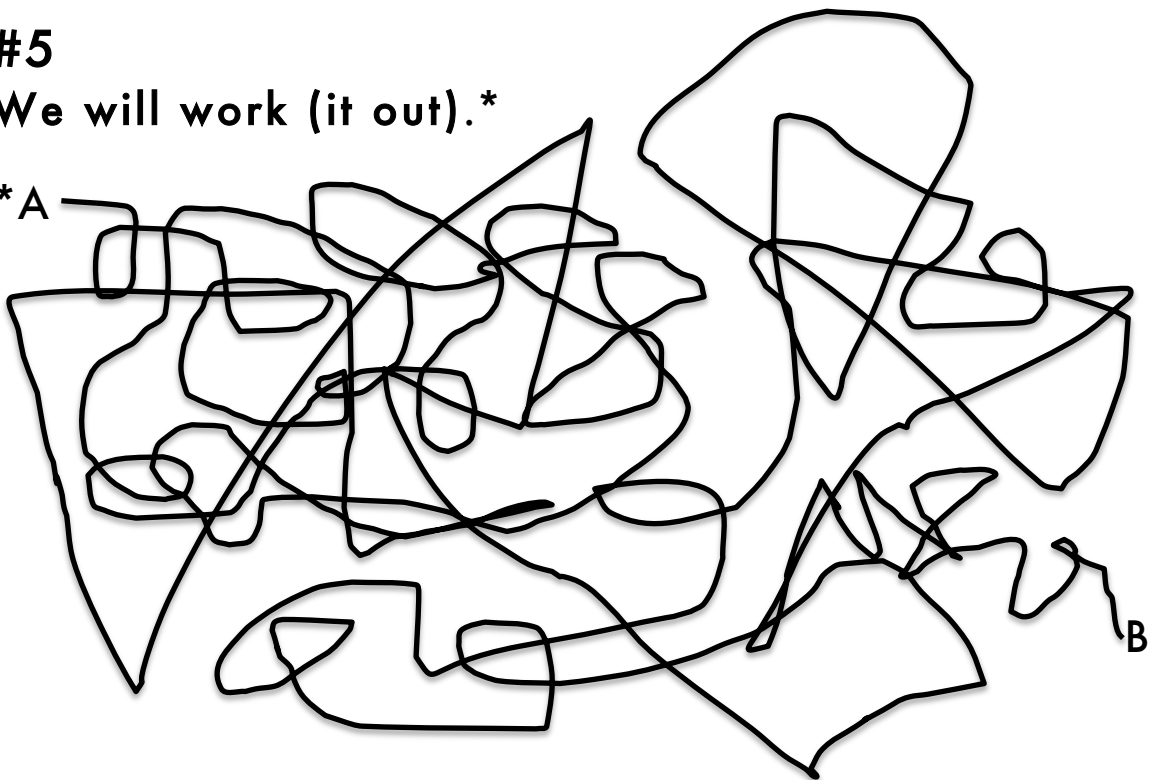

*

#5

We will work (it out).*

*A

#6

We will contemplate.

#7

We will experiment rather than fail or succeed. *

* Unschärferelation. Arkhipov. Pavlov too long anyways.

#8

We will turn fun into sad. *

* or the other way around.

#9

We will rejoice.

#10

We will be aware that this moment is already gone.
